“Mario Cacace” Multimedia Center

Anacapri

General info on transportation

Naples Capodichino airport is located about 10 km from downtown, approx. 30 minutes by taxi or bus. The taxi stand is located outside Terminal 1.

Immediately outside Terminal 1 (where all incoming flights land), you will find the Alibus: this coach takes passengers to the center of Naples and stops at both Piazza Garibaldi (near Central Railway Station) and Piazza Municipio (opposite to the Molo Beverello port) . Tickets are available on board.

If you land at Rome Fiumicino, the “Leonardo Express” train that goes non-stop to Roma Termini. To get from Roma Termini to Napoli Centrale, Naples' main train station, you can rely on FRECCIAROSSA and ITALO trains: they take just over an hour and the connections are very frequent (they run almost every hour). Once in Naples, any taxi will bring you to Naples Beverello docks where you can take a ferry to Capri.

The taxi fare system in Naples offers both meter and predetermined rates. All taxis are required to display the Rate Card (in Italian and English) on the back of the front seat to allow the user to choose either a metered journey or a fixed rate price. In this latter situation, it is essential to inform the driver before boarding the vehicle.

Aliscafi and Traghetti's timetable is available at <http://www.capritourism.com/en/ship-timetable>. Times change frequently: thus, check times of crossings a couple of days before you travel. Tickets can be purchased directly at the port.

How to get to Anacapri

Public Buses

Public buses on Capri are minibuses that carry about 10 passengers seated, as large buses would not be able to navigate the narrow island lanes! In the summer, they are usually crowded and there are often long lines at the bus stops, though the routes run more frequently.

Taxi

The quickest way to get from Capri dock to Anacapri is by taxi. They carry up to seven passengers and are often open-top. If you are travelling with a small group, you will find that hiring a taxi is not more expensive than catching the public bus.
